REPORTS

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS TO THE HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Meeting at

GREENEVILLE, TENNESSEE

October 15, 1930

We, your District Superintendents, at the close of another Conference year come to give thanks to Almighty God for the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Holston Conference and you. Our heritage, the result of untiring labors and untold sacrifices of our sainted dead, demands the continued efforts and co-operation of ministers and laymen which is manifested in the results of the year's work. We are brothers, and as brothers we have much in common. The year closing has presented us with many problems and difficulties, —but so has every other year. What are these to Methodist preachers and Methodist people? We are what we are because we have made problems and difficulties stepping-stones to greater experiences and wider fields of service. The day in which we live presents to us a new challenge, and we will move onward and upward to greater heights of victory.

We appreciate the leadership which Bishop H. Lester Smith is giving to the work of the church in this Conference. We have found him to be a brother first, after that a Bishop. To Bishop Leonard we pledge our co-operation in working out in the very finest way possible the many problems which will be presented to him during his visit with us. We assure him that we are happy to have him preside over this session of the Conference, and trust that when he has gone from us that he may have many happy remembrances of Holston Methodism.

During the past year some of the families of the parsonage have been called to pass through hours of extreme sorrow. Our sympathy and prayers go out to them. We remember kindly our brothers of the ministry who during the year have been translated, and we are thankful to our heavenly Father for their life and work. They carried the torch for us, and now we will endeavor to carry it for them, and for those who come after us.

In order that we may prove ourselves unto God and men to be workmen, we must study. Our church has always recognized the importance of education. Within the bounds of our own Conference there are four schools, the University of Chattanooga, Tennessee

Wesleyan College, Murphy Collegiate Institute, and Pitman Center. Annually hundreds of our boys and girls come in touch with these institutions. The work they are doing makes it necessary that we as a Conference not only appreciate but support these institutions. The Board of Education and friends of education for the past few years have literally poured thousands of dollars into the promotion of these schools. But the time has come when we must assume some greater part of the responsibility.

The church has many opportunities for service, but the greatest group of people to work with and those who respond to the call of the church more quickly, and in whom there can be built Christ-like ideals more easily are the young people. We should be enthusiastic about supporting and co-operating with any movement promoted by our church for the young people. Four years ago we began in a new way to promote within the Conference a program of religious education. At first it appeared to be almost an impossible task, but we rejoice in the progress which has been made and feel that the Conference recognizes the importance of such a program to the extent that it shall go forward until its influence has been felt in every community where our church is at work.

The Summer School of Ministerial Training, which has been promoted annually at Tennessee Wesleyan College for the past few years, has proved its worth, and we insist that to every under graduate pastor, every local preacher, and those who desire to pursue post-graduate work there can come no greater opportunity.

For one year we have been active in developing friends and securing funds for the relief of retired ministers. We rejoice in the splendid success with which our representatives have met, and we believe that in the days which are yet ahead ministers and laymen alike will do their best to reach the goal.

It has been suggested by some that we find another name other than "World Service" for the benevolent enterprises of our church. However, the Area Council in session at Nashville in April went on record asking that the name be retained. It is evident, however, that the term "World Service" does not mean much to many people. We recognize the importance of some educational activities to the extent that those agencies represented in World Service may become known to our membership. Foreign Missions should be emphasized, Home Missions should be brought very definitely before our people, and time should be given to every other Board or agency that receives a part of the World Service dollar. We sincerely hope and pray that our giving to the world-wide program of our church has reached the low level and that we shall begin to make advances instead of decreases.

We rejoice in the fact that thousands of dollars have been paid on church indebtedness and spent for improvements on church buildings and parsonages. We trust that every church that has an indebtedness is trying as rapidly as possible not only to reduce the indebtedness but to pay in full the total amount. We are happy in the thought that new churches are being built every year. Some churches which have been built with the idea of giving to the community a modern church do not meet the demands nor solve the problems because an architect who knows church architecture was not consulted. All ministers and official members of the church who contemplate building a new place of worship should take time and work in co-operation with the Bureau of Architecture of our own church which is maintained by the church to help decide upon the type and size of building needed in the community. A beautiful structure, adequate for a modern program, and conducive to worship is cheaper in the end than one which is not planned as carefully as it should be. It is evident that too much money is being spent by our people for buildings which do not meet the needs of the community. Furthermore, there are congregations which are embarrassed because of the large indebtedness which has been accumulated in erecting new buildings. We urge that before the church is actually started the major portion of the cost be available, for if a congregation is able to pay for a building after it is finished, it is able to pay for it before the construction is started. If this plan could have been followed by many congregations thousands of dollars now being paid out as interest could be used in promoting the program of the church.

From the reports available it is evident that there will be an increase in church membership. Also the Sunday Schools will show a gain. There will be an increase shown in the activities of the Epworth League, women's work and other departments of the church. The reports of the various Boards and departments will be printed in the Journal and at your convenience you may study them.

However, we are not inclined to attach too much importance to figures for it is evident that in many places the records of the Church and Church School have been so kept that it is impossible to arrive at any conclusion which is entirely satisfactory. There are some churches the membership roll of which has been lost and the number of membership is more or less an estimated enrollment. There are Church Schools being promoted in which no persons are enrolled as students, no record is kept as to the average attendance, therefore the total report will be an estimate. We should be careful in the matter of keeping records of those for whom we as a church are responsible. Our attention has been called again and again to the necessity and importance of keeping our church records up to date. We should give more attention to those who move from the community to another and be sure that the pastor located in the community into which such persons have moved be notified. Because of neglect at this point there are literally thousands of persons being lost annually to the church. We need to be constantly in touch with all persons living within the bounds of our parish.

For some time we have placed much stress upon the administrative and financial phases of the work of church. This we should have done and must continue to do, but we believe that the time now is when we need to give much consideration and prayer to the deepening of the spiritual life of the church. However, many people have not yet learned that God has any claim upon their possessions or time. They have not yet realized that there is any spiritual connection between them and their income. We have not yet preached the gospel of Christian stewardship sufficiently to cause a great many people to understand that they, too, are responsible for preaching the gospel of Christ to all peoples of the earth.

We need to emphasize constantly the importance of having people contribute of their earthly substance to the support of the gospel and the various benevolent enterprises of the church. Every child in the Church School, every member of the Epworth League, and every other person connected in any way whatsoever with the church should be given an opportunity to worship through giving. To increase our giving to the world-wide program of Methodism would be a simple matter if every member of the church within the Conference would measure up to his responsibility. We are under obligations to God and to the peoples of the world as well as our own local church to urge that every Methodist be a world-wide Methodist. But speaking of finances, we need a revision of the business methods of our churches. In many churches the work is not carried on in a business-like way. We need to organize our work so that there will be some regularity in giving and some well-defined system of handling our givings. More and more we are recognizing the importance of weekly or monthly contributions. We should continue to emphasize the importance of this regularity in order that the local church may not face at the close of the year so great a financial burden, and also that the workers in the field may be able to carry on without embarrassment. Let us strive to increase our business efficiency so that there will be no hinderance on our part to the progress of the Kingdom of God.

But the Methodist Episcopal Church is more than administration and finance; these take but a secondary place when compared with that which is first. From all parts of the world and from all churches there comes the conviction that the church needs more of the spirit of Christ. That is, there is a general feeling that there needs to be a deepening of the spiritual life within the church. But if this desire is to be realized, for the most part it will begin in the life of the ministry. The great need of the church today is not leadership, though that is always to be desired; it is not education, although we recognize the importance of education; it is not money, and yet we know that we cannot carry on without it; but the great need of the church today is a deeper consecration and loyalty to the cause for which the church stands. Prayer is necessary in the life of the church. Prayer accomplishes the impossible. Prayer will unlock doors hitherto barred to the spirit of God. Prayer will produce strength and courage where there was weakness and timidity. Through prayer the spiritual life of the church will be deepened. As ministers we cannot lead our people to a deeper experience of the Christian life except we ourselves are men of prayer, for we cannot give that which we do not have. We cannot feed hungry souls unless we ourselves have bread.

Our business first is that of leading men into right relations with God. The commission given to the church is a commission of evangelism. When Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" that is what he meant. We have many revivals and we need more. We need more revivals such as will get hold of the life of the community and of the church. We believe that every pastor should be an evangelist and that he should plan definitely for great revival periods. However, we do not feel that we should place too much emphasis on the professional evangelist. We do believe, however, that brother ministers could be of great help to each other, therefore, where it is impossible for the pastor to do the work by himself we urge that a brother minister be called, rather than engaging a professional evangelist. We should keep well in mind the fact that the revival period is by no means the only time of the year when the work of evangelism should be carried on. Revivals revive the church and community, evangelism is the act of leading men and women into right relationships with God and may be done any time and anywhere by taking advantage of the opportunity. The act of evangelism should be going on constantly in every church throughout the year. As ministers visiting from house to house and from person to person the opportunity of leading somebody into the presence of God is ever with us. One of the duties of the minister is to seek an opportunity to lead individuals into right relationships with God. The revival season or the time of decision for Christ in the life of the individual does not complete the task. After this the new convert must be diligently cared for. It is necessary for him to have nourishment which must be given largely by the church and the organizations within the church. We urge the church to supply the training and the leadership sufficient for spiritual development in the life of the new convert.

It is a well known fact that the churches of our cities are somewhat dependent upon the people of the country for their membership. There are some central churches or city churches the membership of which, for the most part, is composed of those persons who have come either directly or indirectly from the country. We feel that the central church is obligated to help maintain and care for the work of the rural communities, for within the last few years there has been a shifting of the population from rural communities into the centers. The country church has suffered tremendously because of this movement. For some years there has been a movement to consolidate rural schools. The one room school buildings have been torn away, new and modern school buildings have been erected in other communities, thus the rural centers of education have been changed. The highway commission has built new roads, and in many instances the church that at one time was easily accessible is now removed from the main highway. Because of these and other conditions many churches have been deserted. It is evident that the church life in the country is on the decline and unless something is done to save the situation it will soon be an institution of the past. In the face of these conditions, the time is now when we should be very active in maintaining the work of the rural church. This is being done in many places through what is known as the Larger Parish movement. There are some three or four such co-operative programs in operation within our own Conference, and while we have been operating only two or three years yet it has proved that it is one of the solutions to the problem. There are many rural churches within the Conference that no longer serve in any adequate manner the people of the community. Many of these churches require as much of the minister's time as those in more thickly populated communities. We want to serve these people. They must be administered to. Because they belong to a church that is no longer active is no excuse for us as a church to neglect them. They are as much entitled to the blessings and help of the church as other members. The question that presents itself is how can we best care for these people and at the same time be of service to a greater number of people. Some have tried to answer this question in terms of consolidation. We believe that the time is not very far distant when we will see in the Holston Conference consolidated Methodist Episcopal churches. The old building as it now stands, the decreased number of members, new roads and the automobile will have much to do with this movement. We must prepare for it and be ready to solve the problem in the wisest way possible as it presents itself. It is impossible for some communities to support an adequate church program, therefore, the stronger churches of the Conference are responsible for these people and should be encouraged to make an adequate program of church activities possible for them. If the ministers of the Conference would work out a co-operative program, they could help stimulate and strengthen these communities. There is no reason why ministers of the center churches and stronger churches of the Conference could not give some time in preaching and leadership to many of the rural churches. This would help to create a better feeling on the part of the rural people for the center church and at the same time acquaint the center church with the rural situation. Many rural people moving into the centers do not unite with the church in the center because they do not understand the ways or know the people of that church. As brothers in the ministry, we can overcome many of these difficulties by helping each other in our work.

The Methodist Episcopal church still has wonderful opportunities in the Holston territory. God has given us a great work to do. Many have lived and died for the cause of Christ and the church in this territory. They have paved the way for us and have given us a tremendous responsibility. This time in which we live and the church of which we are a part presents to us many complicated problems. There are personal problems, group problems, economic problems, race problems, social problems, industrial problems, and many others which demand the attention and co-operation of the ministers and laymen. We have been entrusted with a tremendous task, but by the grace of God vouchsafed unto us we will move forward and upward in the name of Him who commissioned us to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel." Therefore, brethren:

"Be strong! We are not here to dream, to drift,
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift,
Shun not the struggle, face it, 'tis God's gift.

Be Strong!
Say not the days are evil—who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce—O shame!
Stand up, and speak out, and bravely, in God's name.

Be Strong!
It matters not how deep intrenched the wrong,"
How hard the battle goes, the day, how long;
Faint not, fight on! Tomorrow comes the song."

Standing Committees and Boards

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION OF HOLSTON CONFERENCE

Since the last meeting of the Holston Conference, its Board of Education has had three meetings. At the first of these, the Board was re-organized according to the plan proposed by the denominational Board of Education. The principal points of this re-organization were the division of the work of the Board into two divisions, namely, that of Educational Institutions and that of Religious Education in the Local Church. Brother H. G. Williamson's work which had been conducted under the Holston Conference Board of Religious Education is now under the supervision of the second division named, of the re-organized Board.

Christian Education in the Holston Conference comprises at present four different projects:—three educational institutions, and that program of religious education in the local church superintended by Brother Williamson.

We recognize that fundamental to any Conference policy of education is the program of religious education in the Local Church. The purpose of such a program, we believe to be that of helping to improve the efficiency with which all persons in the Local Church are learning to live the Christian life. Religious education is concerned not merely with the imparting of knowledge but with continuous growth in Christ-like character, Christ-like ideas, ideals, motives, attitudes, habits, which are the result of responses made by the individual to situations in his environment. A conference program of religious education is charged, therefore, with the responsibility of making more favorable those conditions which modify the response of the individual. Developing more efficient leadership, increasing the time of religious training, improving the curriculum, making more effective the organization and administration of the local program, helping to secure better equipment, are some of its specific objectives.

At a time when the program of religious education is being reconstructed on the basis of principles of pedagogy more vital than we have had in the past, our greatest need is trained leaders. Our lesson materials to a great extent are being written from an educational view point with which church school teachers are not familiar, consequently, there is much confusion and, in some quarters, criticism, which impede the progress of the local church. The fault is not so much with our lesson materials, as with the leadership training program of the Church, which has not kept pace with the advances in curriculum building.

We, therefore, recommend that in so far as possible, every local church in co-operation with the Conference Director of Religious Education set itself to the task of developing a leadership training policy which will issue in regular and frequent leadership training activities.

The Standard Training School is valuable and should be continued in those centers where a sufficient enrollment may be secured to warrant expense. But such types of training as home study courses, workers conferences, local institutes, and classes, should be made a part of the training program of every local church.

Such an expansion of our program, however, would demand a larger number of credit instructors among both laymen and pastors than we now have. To meet this need the Division of Religious Education in the Local Church offers assistance in conducting coaching conferences for prospective leadership training instructors. We wish to commend this opportunity to the pastors and urge their heartiest co-operation.

In order that an opportunity may be given for more thorough preparation than is possible in the local church, we approve the continuance of the Conference Summer School of Religious Education, and recommend that the Conference give it more serious consideration and support as a leadership opportunity for the local church.

We keenly feel the need of more time for religious teaching. Extended time schedule on Sunday morning, week-day schools of religion, and Vacation Schools, are some of the means being employed for this purpose. We commend them all, but urge that when any of these are attempted care be taken to provide adequate leadership. The development of our Vacation School program during the past three years has been well nigh phenomenal; and while we favor its further progress, we urge that the highest standards possible with respect to such matters as teachers, lesson materials, and equipment, be maintained.

Educational principles call for a unified program in a local church. While we recognize that such an ideal is not possible or practical at the present time, we do favor the correlation of all existing organizations and agencies in the local church, under the direction of the quarterly conference committee on religious education, in such a way, as to avoid overlapping of certain activities, or the neglect of others, needless dissipation of leadership, time and energy; and to this end we urge that the pastors bring to the attention of the quarterly conference committee on religious education and our local church school officers and teachers the present plans for correlation suggested by the Board of Education.

While personality is the primary factor in the educational process, adequate equipment is important. We concur with the recommendations of the Cabinet with respect to the care we should exercise in the planning of our church buildings. A modern program of religious education demands standardized equipment, with which only the best architects are familiar. The designing and furnishing even of our smallest churches should not be left to unskilled workmen. We, therefore, urge the heartiest co-operation on the part of pastors and building committees with the Bureau of Architecture in the construction, remodeling, or furnishing of churches, no matter how small.

The Educational Institutions of the Conference comprise the University of Chattanooga, a four year College, granting three different baccalaureate degrees; Tennessee Wesleyan College, a junior College granting a diploma representative of two years of College work; and Murphy Collegiate Institute, offering four years of preparatory work.

The Holston Conference has expressed often its belief in education as a means of developing Christian character. Through the schools just mentioned, it has an opportunity of expressing its belief and practice. That the Conference may better understand what the possibilities of our three schools are, the Board recommends that the Conference authorize the appointment of Conference visitors who shall visit each school and report through the Board to the Conference.

In the meantime, let the Conference note the following items:
Plant Value:

University of Chattanooga	$1,282,400.00
Tennessee Wesleyan College	500,000.00
Murphy Collegiate Institute	200,000.00

Student Enrollment:

University of Chattanooga—
regular students	413
various specials	347
Tennessee Wesleyan College 240—
which in spring increases to	500
Murphy Collegite Institute	125

Of greater moment, in looking into the future, is the integrating system of college, junior college, and preparatory school. Readjustment of educational units is upon the school world. The Holston Conference finds itself in possession of the system coming into use. Since it will take only slight adjustment to rid our system of overlapping and duplicating, the Conference should ask its educational institutions to see that in future development of regular or special departments, this situation is preserved.

The Conference must recognize that responsibility for the program of our three schools resides in their Boards of Trustees, and that the Conference makes its contribution to the management of these schools only through those whom it may elect to the Boards of Trustees of through Methodists upon these Boards.

On the other hand, yet by the same tokens, the schools should recognize that they should be sympathetic and sensitive to the mind of the Conference, and that the Conference is not at all responsible for the policies which have been adopted, nor for their outcome, except as stated above.

The Conference asks the schools in its territory to give much weight to the training of religious leaders, lay and clerical.

Because the Conference believes that the schools will do their best to serve its needs in education, it will undertake to be of assistance in finding worthy young people to enter their gates, and funds for their budget. Details of these undertakings occur in other parts of this report.

The Board would suggest that the plans of this report be considered for immediate, but temporary use, for as yet, the Board has not had opportunity to study the findings of The Reeve's Survey Commission, working under the direction of the denominational Board of Education by order of the General Conference. Last winter this commission made an exhaustive study of the schools in our midst. Upon study of this report the Conference may desire to modify the program it now proposes to adopt. Your Board promises such study with the report next year. In the meantime, the Conference should not delay, but rather start upon the program herein proposed.

Further recommendations are:

First, that the Cabinet nominate, and the Conference elect, two official Conference visitors to each of the three educational institutions;

Second, that the three schools make report to the Conference Board one month before annual Conference on certain items of enrollment, faculty, plant value, income, and expenditures.

There are other Methodist students at other school centers in Holston Conference. Especially should be mentioned the University of Tennessee. Our Church has recognized the responsibility of bringing Christian education to tax supported institutions, and has established the Wesley Foundation as an agency for caring for such. Peculiarly fortunate are we in Tennessee, since the State University authorities are welcoming the co-operation of religious bodies, and generously offering credit for courses taught in the field of religion by church representatives.

Since the State is ever finding a larger and larger acceptance of its efforts in higher education at the University of Tennessee, will be an ever increasing responsibility for Christian education. Methodism should play its part in this opportunity. The time to begin is now. Too frequently we let opportunities grow into emergencies, which so stagger us by their immensity, that we say the time is too late. The University of Tennessee is inviting Christian leaders to a Conference which meets in January for consideration of religious needs upon its campus. Methodism should be represented there with the power to constructively take part in the proposals of this Conference.

Particular opportunity at the University of Tennessee would seem to be the placement of a worker who could qualify as a teacher in the school of religion, and as student pastor upon the campus. This should be done as soon as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

W. C. MARTIN, Chairman.

REPORT OF ROBERT L. STAPLETON, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY PENSION RESERVE FUND

Dear Fathers and Brethren—I wish to bring you at this time a brief report of my activities since being appointed to this work. After the close of the conference session at Johnson City in October, 1929 the duty of caring for the Preachers Aid Society Dues and the records of the members of the conference in this connection was added to my appointment in this office. I provided a new roll record of the membership of the conference, and collected dues from 92 members and probationers in the conference.

My next duty was to secure a list of the quarterly conference membership of the charges from the Superintendents. With these district lists in my possession, I formulated a circular letter, had it printed and sent out about 3,500 of these to all the charges in the conference. I also secured supplies from the office in Chicago, of two different leaflets, "Why have a Superannuates fund for Methodist Preachers," and "The Laymen's Duty," and mailed out a large number of these. Then later on in the year, I prepared a leaflet entitled 'A challenge to Holston Conference Methodists,' and have sent out a large number of copies of this. Then the South Eastern Edition of the Christian Advocate, through the editor, Dr. J. M. Melear, very generously has given us space whenever we have wished it, to spread the good news of this move forward in Holston, and to make reports on our progress from time to time.

I have just said that this movement in the conference for the retired members, widows and children was "good news." And it is good news. In 1920 this conference paid an annuity rate of Seven Dollars per year. We have made no advance in ten years, but on the contrary, our available funds have declined, because the monies we have had have not kept pace with our liabilities. Then we had 28 men, 26 widows, and 7 minor children on our rolls, and now we have 29 men, 38 widows, and 12 minor children. 61 then, and 79 now, with $9,181.00 to distribute then and $12,778.51 to distribute to the 80 claimants last year. That is, our liabilities have been increasing more rapidly than the increase in our funds, so that we paid less in annuities last year, than we did ten years ago. It certainly is and was high time that something should be done.

In addition to what I have said above, I have also been busy in traveling throughout the conference, visiting the district conferences, with groups of ministers, city associations, and individuals; explaining the purpose of this canvass, and finding larger subscriptions and wills, to begin the campaign. During the month of September of this year, I had Dr. B. M. Powell, loaned to us from the office of the Board of Pensions and Relief, of Chicago, with me on a round of the conference. For the Local Commission on this work, I wish to thank Dr. Farmer for his kindness in giving us the use of Dr. Powell. We had a wonderful time going from place to place and seeing friends of this cause. I do not hesitate to say that the cause speaks for itself. Everybody is friendly, although just now everybody cannot subscribe. I agree that every appeal for the advance of the work of the church for finances is important. The cause of Missions, Education, Church Extension, and all other benevolences are important, but I feel that there is no immediate need more important for the future welfare of the church, than this program for our Pension Fund Campaign, in which we are now engaged.

I wish to publicly express my thanks to and appreciation of the Pension Fund Commission, with whom I have worked in perfect harmony this past year. The officers are, C. W. Sullivan, Chairman; D. B. Cooper, Secretary, and W. M. Dye, Treasurer. These brethren with the other members of the commission, have been very thoughtful, uniformly kind and considerate, and we have had a happy time together getting started, and getting together the financial items of this report. I wish now to give you the figures of this first year's work as your Executive Secretary. See report of Treasurer, W. M. Dye.

R. L. STAPLETON,

Executive Secretary.

PENSION RESERVE COMMISSION

The following recommendations of the Committee on the Holston Conference Reserve Pension Fund were made and adopted by the Conference on the motion of Charles W. Sullivan, Chairman of the Commission:

1—The Commission recommends that the conference authorize the Commission to set up plans looking toward entering the new Reserve Pension Fund plans at the earliest date possible.

2—We recommend the following paragraph to take the place of the action of the conference of 1929.—That each member of the Holston Annual Conference shall pay into the treasury of the Reserve Pension Fund 2% of his cash salary and his parsonage if he is occupying one free of rent. The rent is to be reckoned in each case at 15% of cash salary. This amount shall be paid in four installments in advance; November 15, February 15, May 15, and August 15 each year for two years. The two per cent for the year 1929-'30 and for the two succeeding years shall be obligatory to participate in the fund. In case the full amount is not paid by the second day of conference each year including the year October 1929-1930, the unpaid amounts with 6% interest on deferred payments shall become the first claim on the pension of the delinquent or of his widow or children.

3—We recommend that the Holston Conference authorize the Commission to invest the funds in our care with the Board of Pensions of the Church.

4—We recommend that we begin our detailed campaign for funds January 1, 1931. That it be carried on by districts, one at a time. That the District Superintendents be the responsible head of all district units. That the pastor be the responsible head of his charge as a unit. That the basis of the amount assessed to each charge be the same as the ministerial support of each charge and each district for one year.

5—That a Committee be appointed to arrange for Historical Headquarters within the bounds of the conference where articles and documents of interest may be deposited and that space be provided for memorial tablets.

A motion was made by Dr. Francisco that the funds for retired ministers be paid for the present year six months in advance and beginning with the fall of 1931 the funds be paid quarterly in advance.

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

The state of the church and that of the nation are so interwoven that anything which affects the one adversely will affect the other in like manner.

The thing which has been the greatest menace to civilization and the development of a Christian citizenship has been the infamous traffic in intoxicating liquors.

"The People called Methodist" have ever regarded this traffic as "The sum of all villainies." It has robbed childhood and youth of its joy and hope, manhood of its power and old age of that serenity and peace which is its due.

All efforts to control the traffic have been futile. The only creed of the liquor dealer is the extension of his business by fair means or foul.

When the legalized traffic was destroyed by the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the U. S. there was a rallying of the allied forces of evil for the purpose of nullifying that constitution. Men of wealth who were willing to fill their coffers at the expense of broken homes and devastated character have poured out their millions to sow down the country with an unrighteous propaganda in the hope of repealing the amendment or making it to be of none effect.

It is now evident that a tremendous effort is to be made during the next presidential campaign to destroy the amendment and to discredit all of those in authority who are loyal to its retention even including the president of these United States.

THEREFORE, The Holston Annual Conference at a regular annual session in the city of Greeneville, Tenn., on Oct. 15 to 20, 1930 expresses its confidence in the fidelity of the president of the United States in the enforcement of the constitution and deplore the handicaps which have been thrown in his way by the enemies of good government.

We pledge ourselves that we will use every legal means within our power in personal contact, pulpit and press to spread the gospel of temperance, sobriety and good citizenship.

That we will not support with our vote or influence any candidate for public office who expresses opposition to the constitution of the United States, or its amendments and that we will demand of those who solicit our vote or influence an unequivocal expression of their views on this most important item of public welfare.

EVANGELISM

Methodism was born in a revival, and as long as the spirit of Christ is manifested in the hearts and lives of our people, Methodism will continue to take its place at the head of the evangelical column of on-marching followers of Jesus Christ.

Believing in and endorsing every effective form of evangelism, and realizing the importance of salvation from sin, we recommend that our ministers strive to do their utmost in presenting the truth in all its phases, that such knowledge may give spiritual wisdom and deep love and devotion to the things of God.

Believing that the Christian Life is the only manly life, thus evangelism appeals to the highest and noblest faculties of mind and heart. And that the revelation of Jesus Christ is the greatest discovery of man, and that the Christian life is the normal life, and that no man can be at his best until the Spirit of God touches his heart and quickens his thoughts, we heartily recommend that the ministry of our Church take especial care in presenting the message of Christ with that burning passion which Jesus manifested in his relationship to mankind while on earth and in his death upon the cross.

WORLD SERVICE

"Christ alone can save the world, but Christ cannot save the world alone." We confidently offer Christ as the one absolute remedy for the world's needs. World conditions challenge us to our best efforts for Him.

We deplore the loss of membership and retrenchment in the missionary and benevolent work of our church. Economic changes and business depression are partly the cause of decreased giving to World Service, but we believe that when our consecration and money increase in proportionate ratio, the Methodist Episcopal Church will reach its World Service goal of ten million dollars a year.

We, therefore, consecrate ourselves to God for a baptism of the Holy Spirit that we may receive spiritual power for winning the world to Christ.

Our pastors are urged to use every means of informing the people, creating an intelligent understanding of our World Service Agencies.

We commend the action of the Conference in setting apart the fourth Sunday in this month as Missionary Rally Day when every pastor will preach a missionary sermon and the churches receive cash contributions to sustain the financial losses of the year, and all funds be sent to the World Service Treasurer, 740 Rush Street, Chicago, in time to be counted by October 31st.

We recommend that—

A Census be taken annually of all members and constituents.

A Council function in each church.

Church Schools be organized into Missionary Societies, according to Discipline, Paragraph 615, Part 2.

Epworth Leagues observe the twenty-four hour day plan.

An offering be received on special days as Christmas and Easter.

Each church have a separate World Service Treasurer.

Duplex envelopes be used where practical.

World Service moneys be sent to the World Service Treasurer, Chicago, on or before the tenth of each month.

There be a settlement day at least twice a year when every church will pay up in full.

Each church in the Holston Conference raise at least its accepted World 'Service Goal.

RESOLUTION

It was fitting that the 87th annual session of the Holston Conference should have met in Greeneville, Tennessee, and be entertained by the Asbury Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, as host, in honor of the Lone Circuit Rider of nearly a hundred and fifty years ago, who blazed the trail through this section of the country, with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our stay in this lovely city, beautiful for situation, has been one of great joy and delight; profitable to our physical, mental and spiritual natures.

Pleasant memories will linger in our hearts and minds, for the days to come, as we look back to this session, of the wonderful hospitality of the people of Greene County.

Therefore, be it resolved, That we tender our deepest gratitude and appreciation:

To Bishop A. W. Leonard, D. D., L. L. D., for his brotherly and helpful administration of the Conference.

To the host, Rev. Noel Cardwell, pastor of this church, and his people, to the people of the community and of Greene County, for their generous hospitality and entertainment.

To the several churches in the city for their lovely and brotherly co-operation, in making our stay pleasant.

To the press of the city for the splendid publicity given to the Conference.

To the several speakers on the program, for the presentation of the various interests of the church.

To the Book Concern, for the splendid display of books and materials, so necessary to the prosecution of the work of the church.

To the Laymen present, who came in large numbers interested in Christian Education, Evangelism and other interests of the church.

To the Cabinet, Officers, and Committees, for the splendid work accomplished in their arduous tasks to which they were assigned.

Respectfully submitted,

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

The Eighty-Seventh session of Holston Conference warmly welcomes Bishop A. W. Leonard as its presiding officer. A worthy successor of Bishop Asbury, who administered Methodism in the Holston Country, an earnest evangelist of the highest type, an eloquent preacher of the Gospel, a born fighter of the liquor traffic, and faithful friend to all, we assure him of our unfeigned delight his presidency affords us, and pledge him our best efforts to make this a memorable occasion, far-reaching in its effects upon our common task.

We wish to express our further pleasure concerning the presence of Mrs. Leonard, and sincerely hope that the visit of our distinguished guests to Holston Conference which convenes in the Switzerland of America will always be to them, as we are confident it will be to us, a happy memory.

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that this volume is a complete record of the proceedings of the Eighty-Seventh Session of the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and is adopted by the Conference as its official record.

Memoirs

MRS. JOHN SUMMERFIELD PETTY

Mrs. Mora Alice (Grove) Petty, widow of the late Rev. John Summerfield Petty, died suddenly, at her home in Cleveland, Tennessee, on May 16, 1930—passing away in her sleep, during the early morning hours, without pain or suffering.

Mrs. Petty was very active in the Church at Cleveland, and was intensely interested in everything pertaining to the work of the Church. She was the Vice President of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, was a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and of the Cleveland Woman's Club, and was deeply interested in the working of these organizations.

Having been the wife of a Methodist Minister, and knowing something of their trials, she was in sympathy with all her pastors, and supported them with her money and her prayers.

Mrs. Petty was loyal to the cause of Christ, for she was a true Christian. She was faithful to the Church of her choice and never missed a service when it was possible for her to attend. She attended the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society the day before her death. She was loved by all, for she numbered her friends by her acquaintances.

Surviving Mrs. Petty are: one brother, Lewis Grove, of New Moorefield, Ohio; six step-children, Edward S. Petty, Margaret E. Petty and Mrs. Russell E. Ernst, of Cleveland, Tennessee; Mrs. C. N. Woodworth, of Chattanooga, Tennessee; Mrs. James E. Ryan, of Mount Pleasant, Michigan, and Arthur P. Petty, of Shreveport, Louisiana; eleven grand-children and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was conducted at her home in Cleveland, by her Pastor, the Rev. W. L. Oliver, assisted by the Rev. R. L. Stapleton, and she was laid to rest by the side of her husband, in the Officers' Section of the National Cemetery, at Chattanooga, Tennessee, beneath a mound of beautiful flowers—tokens of love and respect from her many friends.

BENJAMIN M. MORRISON

Benjamin Marble Morrison was born in Portland, Maine, September 14, 1869. He died on December 30, 1929, aged sixty years, three months, and fifteen days. He was married to Mary E. Christian in 1888. They came South in the year 1890. He joined the Holston Conference in 1904, and was received into full connection in 1906.

He served with fine acceptability the following charges: Rogersville, Jonesboro, Johnson City Ct., Roan Mountain, LaFollette, Kingston, Inskip, Lenoir City, Etowah, St. James, Red Bank, Elizabethton, and Lonsdale. He instituted and was one year superintendent of the Good Will Industries in Chattanooga. He served a total of twenty-five years as an active member of the Conference. During his pastorate at Lenoir City, April 24, 1917, a great sorrow came to him in the death of his beloved wife, who had so faithfully served with him during the years of his ministry. On July 2, 1918, he was united in marriage with Miss Dixie Ghormley. This proved a very happy marriage, indeed. Miss Ghormley was well fitted for the work of a minister's wife by training and by zeal for the Master's service. Seven children were born to the first marriage. Three of them died in early childhood. Those surviving are Mrs. H. W. Williams, Mrs. Clayton Shields, Miss Sue Morrison, and Ernest Morrison. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. W. J. DuBois, and by three grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted in the Lonsdale Methodist Episcopal Church and at Lenoir City, by District Superintendent W. C. Martin and the Rev. W. K. Harris. The high esteem in which Bro. Morrison was held in all his recent pastorates was demonstrated by the large attendance and the beautiful flowers at both Lonsdale and Lenoir City. Members of the official board of Lonsdale church were the active pallbearers, young ladies from the church served as flower bearers, and the pastors of Knoxville Methodist Episcopal churches, nearly all of whom were present, were the honorary pallbearers. Interment was beside his first wife in the beautiful cemetery at Lenoir City. The Holston Conference suffers a great loss in the passing of this good man. His widow and the children sorrow in the loss of a noble husband and a loving father. A host of people from these charges will miss his gracious friendship; but all of us look to the time when we shall meet him again where partings are no more.—W. K. Harris.

MRS. SAMUEL P. ANGEL

Georgia Virginia Angel was born January 31, 1863, and departed this life August 5, 1930—Age 67 years, 6 months and 4 days. She was married to Samuel P. Angel on November 4, 1884. To this union two children were born. One son, Chester Ernest, died in infancy, and one daughter, Lula Gertrude, is now Mrs. Randolph St. John of California.

In addition to her husband and daughter, Mrs. Angel is survived by one sister, Mrs. R. C. Carter, of Johnson City; and one brother, Mr. Nathaniel Walter, of Montana, also many other relatives and friends.

Sister Angel was converted July 26, 1891, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Johnson City. Being the wife of a Methodist Preacher, her membership was transferred from place to place wherever her husband was pastor. At the time of her death she was a member of the Vestal Methodist Episcopal church, Knoxville.

In addition to being a helper and assistant to her Preacher-husband for thirty years, she was a faithful and efficient Sunday school teacher, a willing and devoted Christian worker wherever her lot was cast.

A faithful and loving companion, a devoted and affectionate mother, a charitable and congenial neighbor, a devout and self-sacrificing Christian, and a loyal and regular supporter of the church, has slipped away from us. We shall love and cherish her memory, and those who have known her shall "rise up to call her blessed" for surely she "rests from her labors and her works do follow her."

The funeral was held from the Vestal Methodist Episcopal church, with Dr. W. C. Martin, Rev. J. T. Bird and Rev. E. H. Ogle officiating, and burial was made in Woodlawn Cemetery, Knoxville.

(E. H. OGLE)

MRS. P. H. HENRY

Margaret Elizabeth Freshour was born the 16th day of February in the year 1843. On the 19th day of July in the year 1863 she was united in marriage to Pleasant Hugh Henry. God gave to them five sons of whom four are living:—George W. and James A. of Tulsa, Okla., Hugh J., of Knoxville, Tenn.; S. Pat, of Fla. One son, William P., died in infancy. Also three daughters:—Mrs. James H. Raulston, Mrs. D. F. Young and Mrs. J. L. Edmondson, all of Maryville, Tenn. Sister Henry was converted when a child and united with the Baptist Church at Townsend, Tenn. She later (after her marriage) united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon after their marriage her husband felt the call to the Ministry and entered the service of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a local preacher. He later mastered the course of study and took membership in the Holston Conference. Sister Henry was therefore the lady of the parsonage and wife of a Methodist preacher for 23 years. They together served the following charges:—Madisonville, Beaver Ridge, Maryville, New Salem, Little River, Scarborough, Wears Valley, Dandridge, Fair Garden and Loudon. She died the 16th day of August, 1930, at the age of 87 years and 6 months. Her funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Ragan, Dr. W. F. Pitts and Dr. G. T. Francisco. Her body was laid to rest beside her husband in beautiful Magnolia cemetery, near her home, Maryville, Tenn. She was a wife and helpmate good and true, a great mother much loved by her children, faithful to her church, revered by a host of friends and neighbors, honored by the great Father of us all. God bless her memory.

W. H. RAGAN.

THOMAS H. CONNER

The Reverend Thomas Hudson Conner was born at Rutledge, Hawkins County, Tennessee, April 9, 1864, and passed to his heavenly reward March 12, 1930, being sixty-six years of age at the time of his departure.

He was married to Miss Ella Elmore in the year 1891. To them were born four children, two of whom, Eva and Ruth Conner, survive and live with the mother at Lincoln Park, Knoxville, Tennessee.

Brother Conner was admitted on trial the Holston Conference in 1902 and received into full membership in 1904. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Warren in 1904, and Elder by Bishop McDowell in 1906.

He served the following named Charges: Morgan Springs, Loudon, Lenoir City, Rogersville, Whitehorn, Mountain City, Kingston, Dandridge, Little River, Morristown Circuit, Telford, Greeneville Circuit, Rutledge, Rogersville again, and because of failing health was retired at his own request at Johnson City Conference in 1929.

Although he knew he must retire it nearly broke his heart to think he would likely never more be a pastor, and he wept as he spoke of it in confidence to his closest friends.

Brother Conner was of the rugged and heroic type. He traveled over mountains and plains in all sorts of weather for very little financial remuneration and did it with a glad heart. He was one of Holston's best Circuit men. People everywhere had the utmost confidence in him and loved him as a brother beloved.

His body was laid to rest in New Gray Cemetery, Knoxville, Tennessee, after a beautiful funeral service in Trinity Church where many of his brother ministers took part. The ministers acted as pallbearers.

When the final roll is called up yonder among the brave men whose lives have been spent for others, those who have carried gladness into mansion and hovel alike, and thus represented Christ, there will be without a single blemish on him, brother Thomas Hudson Conner of Holston Conference.

WILLIAM F. PITTS.
